A Richline Group Announcement

On Tuesday March 8, 2011, Finecraft Fine Jewellery of Toronto, Canada signed an agreement to become part of the Richline Group.

Dennis Ulrich, CEO of Richline, stated "We are happy to announce that Richline Group Canada Ltd. , a Canadian company, will now directly service the Finecraft customers for all Finecraft and Richline products. We will also begin to introduce the Finecraft collection to our key retailers throughout the United States and globally through Richline International, based in Italy".

Finecraft has been a family business founded in 1975, by Roger Gozlan. His son, Alan Gozlan, joined the business in 1980. Alan, and the entire team at Finecraft, will be managing this business, and continue to service customer needs for Finecraft products. In addition, all the Richline brands can be purchased and will be stocked in Canada for improved service in this important market.

Finecraft's distribution center, located in Toronto Canada, and their entire staff, will continue to work together to make Richline, including its Finecraft Brand, the leading supplier of fine jewelry throughout Canada and America, with enhanced local service to all the Canadian customers.

Mr. Gozlan said "We are proud of our past accomplishments and believe strongly that joining together with Richline ensures a productive and vibrant future for our employees and customers".
